

Keep your fleet moving with FlexiHire

Flexible vehicle hire when demand shifts

FlexiHire. Built for operational control.

Fleet demand shifts.
Operations don't stop.

New starters join. Vehicles go off the road.
Lead times extend. Projects scale faster than forecast.

FlexiHire delivers flexible vehicle cover without long-term commitment.

One supplier.
One agreement.
Complete flexibility.

When demand outpaces your fleet

Fleet strategy is planned.
Operational demand isn't.

One delayed delivery. One unexpected breakdown. One probationary hire.

Unplanned demand creates cost pressure.

- New starters and probation periods
- Seasonal peaks
- Contractor mobilisation
- Insurance repair downtime
- Vehicle lead-time delays
- EV rollout and infrastructure timing

Without the right flexibility, cost escalates.

Access without obligation.
Flexibility without complexity.
Control without penalty.
